Patterns of exposition (Book, 1978) [WorldCat.org]

In composition studies, expository writing (also called exposition) is one of the four traditional modes of discourse. It may include elements of narration , description , and argumentation . Unlike creative or persuasive writing , which can appeal to emotions and use anecdotes, expository writing's primary purpose is to deliver information about an issue, subject, method, or idea using facts.
