Timeless is the war for our faith and anchor in Christ to be dislodged. It can happen ever so subtly, even when we don't realize it. Distractions, situations, relationships, and even good things can cause us to lose our center, or in other words, that place that gives us balance. When people lose their balance, they usually fall. It happens even if we don't want it to, and even if we doubt it can. There is a lesson of the science of faith that is at work within the core of every soul. We must continually be "Centered on Majesty" by diligently pursuing Him and living a life that recognizes that Jesus Christ is our source and our stability. "In today's society, it is easy to stay focused on our pain, our victimization, and our troubles. In Centered on Majesty, Susan League lifts our eyes above self to the awesome God who holds our heart in His hands. A Miracle of Life is a testimony about a mother's unconditional love for her child; when giving birth, she would not take the opinion of one doctor telling her, "We have done all we can do. You can take your baby home with meds to keep her comfortable until she passes." She requested the opinion of another doctor who specialized in her daughter's condition: congenital heart defect. The hospital would become a home away from home for mother and child because Ty was born with not one but all four defects. Her first surgery would take place with her being three days old, and that was just the start of many more to come. Every doctor appointed after that surgery appeared to reveal a new condition. Ty was going to need feeding tubes for the rest of her life; she couldn't hear, talk, see, or walk on her own. Mom thought at one point, she would lose her mind and she turns to drinking to relieve from her trials. That was only a temporary fix, the problems were still there the next day. She didn't think she could take any more bad news, but with much prayer, family support, and support from her church family, her daughter beat all odds that were stacked up against her, thus being Mom's miracle.

Sage Hayes affectionately known as Sister Hey loved her job at Newfound Baptist Church in Sandersville. Newfound Missionary Baptist was the largest church in the area and was well known throughout the community for having good preaching, good singing, and delicious, southern style food. It seems as though everyone in the community knew each other or a family member. Sage was the kind of woman that loved attention and sought it in different ways. She worked with some of the most creative and innovative people at Newfound. Sage loved being a support system for the staff at Newfound, especially Daniel Morgan. Daniel was the creative mind behind the Yahweh Food Bank which fed more than 200 families every month with nutritious meals as well as The Lion's Den which provided health and dental screening to poverty stricken families. Tall, muscular, and handsome Daniel was a true Christian man who sought the Lord in every aspect of his life. Sage loved Daniel and would go to any length to be with him even if it meant going against her Christian principles. She desperately wanted to be Mrs. Daniel Morgan. Armed with help from her sister, Delphina, Sage came up with a plan to hook Daniel. However, Daniel was not going to play by Sage's rules. He was facing his own challenges and was not going to let Sage get the upper hand. So, when Sage's initial plan failed, she decided to concoct a more devious plan. Sage allowed her Christian values to be compromised by participating in a momentary indiscretion. Will she be able to find forgiveness, restoration and rejuvenation?

With this new lectionary commentary series, Westminster John Knox offers the most extensive resource for preaching on the market today. When complete, the twelve volumes of the series will cover all the Sundays in the three-year lectionary cycle, along with movable occasions, such as Christmas Day, Epiphany, Holy Week, and All Saints' Day.

For each lectionary text, preachers will find four brief essays--one each on the theological, pastoral, exegetical, and homiletical challenges of the text. This gives preachers sixteen different approaches to the proclamation of the Word on any given occasion. The editors and contributors to this series are world-class scholars, pastors, and writers representing a variety of denominations and traditions. And while the twelve volumes of the series will follow the pattern of the Revised Common Lectionary, each volume will contain an index of biblical passages so that nonlectionary preachers, as well as teachers and students, may make use of its contents.
