In this sweet and brightly illustrated picture book, Amy Wu must craft a dragon unlike any other to share with her class at school in this unforgettable follow-up to Amy Wu and the Perfect Bao. Amy loves craft time at school. But when her teacher asks everyone to make their own dragon, Amy feels stuck. Her first dragon has a long, wingless body, stag-like horns, and eagle claws, but her friends don't think it's a real dragon. Then she makes dragons like theirs, but none of them feels quite right...None of them feels like hers. After school, a story from Grandma sparks new inspiration, and

Amy rounds up her family to help her. Together, can they make Amy's perfect dragon? How I Learned Kindness from a Unicorn Dg Books Publishing

Having a pet dragon is so much fun. You can teach him to sit, roll over, and play... You can teach him to make friends, control his anger, overcome his anxiety, show respect, and many more... But, how do you teach him about the delicate subject such as Body Safety? How do you help him understand appropriate and inappropriate touching? How do you prepare him to deal with different real-life problematic situations? How do you teach him about protecting his body and his privacy? How does he know to respond and tell others that he doesn't want to be touched? What can he do when someone makes him feel uncomfortable? Who does he talk to or ask for help when he feels unsafe? How can you teach him to be in control of his own body and respect others' personal boundaries? And so much more... Get this book now and learn how!
