Regardless of any
opinion of this
book, the true
story of Arthur Meyerowitz is
breathtaking, awe
inspiring. There
are not enough adjectives. He

endured/survived
through an incredible era of
history. That said,
the execution is
lacking. Although incredible, the story is dry. Sorry
to say, it is terribly
trite.

The Lost Airman is
by the grandson of an American airman
who was downed
over France during WWII. It is based on
private memoirs and interviews. The story
is unsurprisingly
thrilling given the subject. It is not a classic but well told
and very interesting.
