One thing is for sure, we all die one day. The question you have to ask yourself; is there a heaven and a hell, and if there is, where will I go? In the pages of this book, Larry Clements reveals how you can know the answer to that question. He tells of some riveting stories of how he lived for the Devil for most of his life and was heading for eternity in hell. Until one day while in prison serving thirteen years for drug and gun charges found Jesus. He found in the pages of the Bible that Heaven is a free gift. No one is Good enough to get in on their own, and there is no one so Bad that it will keep them out. We are Saved by God's grace. Jesus is the Way, the Truth and the Life. No one can come to the Father except through Him (John 14:6). Do you want the Truth? Do you want the Life? And do you want to know the Way? The author only testifies to what he knows; being a heroin and cocaine addict for over thirty years and living a life of crime, can now say, he no longer lives that life. He has found the Truth, lives the Life and knows the Way. That Way is Jesus!

We live in a foolish world with women making bad choices and suffering from the collateral damage of other 's wrong choices. The One Year Wisdom for Women Devotional, based on the audio program of the same name, was birthed out of the great need for women to hear how God addresses every single facet of their lives through the powerful and practical book of Proverbs. For many, the Proverbs are hard to study because the topics jump around from verse to verse. The One Year Wisdom for Women Devotional is a practical tool that will help women in their daily walk with the Lord. It is a great companion to the One Year Bible because it directly follows that book 's daily Proverbs reading. Each day not only follows the script of the Wisdom for Women audio program, it also references the One Year Bible reading schedule and ends with a powerful call to action.

Raw, real, and relatable, this book is your guide to navigating life's fires. Bianca Olthoff is here to show that our struggles and hardships may be the fire that refines us instead of destroys us, brings us hope instead of despair, and leads us right into the arms of a God who loves us. Play with Fire, the debut book by popular speaker and teacher Bianca Juarez Olthoff, is the reminder that God isn't waiting until you have more resources or a spouse or a job so he can use you. He's ready to use you now. Using the mythical creature, the Phoenix, which was also referenced by early church leaders, she parallels this story with God's work in her own life, highlighting the beauty of reinvention with fire as both the impetus and the method for change. Olthoff reminds us that we serve a God who is redemptive and can take the worst situations and use them for His glory. Play With Fire is a Bible-infused message that will help women discover: The way out of the middle is moving forward The personal and powerful nature of the Holy Spirit The power and sacrifice of transformation The unique calling and purpose of life involves transformation With Olthoff's distinct style, strong storytelling gifts, and powerful bible teaching, Play with Fire will remind readers that God has huge dreams for them. In Bianca's words, "He's whispering in the wind and speaking through the fire and shouting in silence the extraordinary dream He is birthing in you. His dream for you is far greater than the dream you have for yourself. It's not your identity or income or influence that will make this happen. Like Zechariah 4:6 says, "It's not by might nor by power, but by my Spirit," says the Lord." It's time to play with fire. Study guide and video study also available.

Choosing and Using Curriculum David C Cook

Meet Susanna Newcome, who in 1728 became one of the first women in history to publish a book on, and publicly engage in, the discipline of Christian Apologetics. Susanna showed the world that when it came to the mind, women were not the weaker sex, and instead were equally brilliant, as well as capable defenders of the historic Christian faith. She lived her life refusing to apologize for defending the truth and challenging the status quo of the day. She constantly kept those around her on their toes theologically, and openly critiqued any unbiblical ideology that crossed her path. She had a passion for truth, and her deep faith compelled her to challenge those who would lead astray the consciences of sincere but unlearned Christians. Susanna truly was a force to be reckoned with for the kingdom of God and we can learn much today from the spiritual courage of this formidable woman of the past. Her book, An Enquiry into the Evidence of the Christian Religion, is not only an answer to the "Christian Deism" of its day but is a valuable work of Christian Apologetics in its own right. At the time it was published, one of many glowing reviews stated, "We have no performance on the same subject that is so short, and at the same time so strong, perspicuous, and convincing. It would be no dishonor to the greatest Divine to be thought its author."

Journals/cbff/561e6f800cf2c6c643743ab8 This beautiful learning experience provides your students with four hours of daily instruction for 6 weeks! Mom, you will only need to help your child for the first three days and then the student will be able to work independently. This handbook is designed to accompany up to nine library books, and several educational movies and documentaries based on the student's interests and learning goals. For example your daughter may want to learn more about Victorian clothing, photo editing, baking cupcakes, babysitting, travel to Italy, nutrition, and pioneer life, now all you need to do is get a stack of books and movies about these topics. Maybe you have a son who is into World War 2, weapons, airplanes, fast cars, space, dinosaurs and tree houses. You would get books and movies about these topics for him. The purpose of this 6 week homeschooling plan is to give homeschooling moms a break while the children use this study guide. We know that moms have seasons in life where sickness, new babies, holidays, moves and transitions limit the homeschooling process. Many parents are using the journals year round, a few days a week. With this program your children will thrive and learn unforgettable lessons while you get the rest you need or focus on other things without feeling guilty that your children have been "unschooling" for too long. This handbook is as fun as unschooling but provides the structure and freedom children need. This curriculum was created by a mother of ten children who is also a Dyslexia, ADHD and Asperger's Syndrome specialist. This is the curriculum she designed for her own children who have special requirements for learning. For example the font used is perfect for Dyslexia so that the child can read without confusion about the letters. The program is also very good for students with Asperger's because it focuses on the child's special interests while integrating all the subjects that are needed for a well rounded education. Kids with ADHD love this method because it gets them out of their seat and requires art, activity, and time exploring nature! This program can be used for a wide age range because each student will choose age appropriate books to accompany this workbook. Every child in your family who is reading at a second grade level or higher can use this program, non-readers and dyslexics should complete Dyslexia Games Series A and B before starting this program. www.DyslexiaGames.com Typical mathematics is not included in this learning program, though the child will use and explore numbers in many practical ways every day. Written by an L. A. County homicide detective and former atheist, Cold-Case Christianity examines the claims of the New Testament using the skills and strategies of a hard-to-convince criminal investigator. Christianity could be defined as a " cold case " : it makes a claim about an event from the distant past for which there is little forensic evidence. In Cold-Case Christianity, J. Warner Wallace uses his nationally recognized skills as a homicide detective to look at the evidence and eyewitnesses behind Christian beliefs. Including gripping stories from his career and the visual techniques he developed in the courtroom, Wallace uses illustration to examine the powerful evidence that validates the claims of Christianity. A unique apologetic that speaks to readers ' intense interest in detective stories, Cold-Case Christianity inspires readers to have confidence in Christ as it prepares them to articulate the case for Christianity.

The digital revolution has ushered in a series of sexual revolutions, all contributing to a perfect storm for modern relationships. Online dating, social media, internet pornography, and the phenomenon of the smartphone generation have created an avalanche of change with far-reaching consequences for sexuality today. The church has struggled to address this new moral ecology because it has focused on clarity of belief rather than quality of formation. The real challenge for spiritual formation lies in addressing the underlying moral intuitions we carry subconsciously, which are shaped by the convictions of our age. In this book, a fresh new voice offers a persuasive Christian vision of sex and relationships, calling young adults to faithful discipleship in a hypersexualized world. Drawing from his pastoral experience with young people and from cutting-edge research across multiple disciplines, Jonathan Grant helps Christian leaders understand the cultural forces that make the church's teaching on sex and relationships ineffective in the lives of today's young adults. He also sets forth pastoral strategies for addressing the underlying fault lines in modern sexuality.

Whether you've ministered for years or have no prior training in how to minister to those in need this curriculum holds the answers. Depression, anxiety, outbursts of anger are just a few of the consequences associated with deep heart hurts. Cherie Fresonke uses the story of the Sinful Woman in Luke chapter 7 as the foundation to help heal the brokenhearted in this powerful, life-changing curriculum. This Bible study teaches practical application of God's Word to help set the captives free. Those learning from the pages within will soon discover their fear replaced with strength, depression with joy, anxiety with faith, and rage with rest. Best yet, they will discover what it means to go in peace! The Go in Peace Biblical Discipleship Curriculum is easy to use. Order the Go in Peace Leader's Manual (ISBN: 978-0983167846) for yourself and order the Go in Peace Student Workbook (ISBN: 978-0983167853) for the person you wish to disciple. Then simply read the text out loud from the Leader's Manual as the one you are discipling follows along in the Student Workbook. Every place the Leader's Manual has a bold/underlined word, the Student Workbook has a blank space. The curriculum was written in this manner to keep the student's attention. By having to fill in the blank the student not only pays attention, but God can speak deeper to his or her heart as the blanks are filled in with thought provoking words. You can also order the book Go in Peace (ISBN: 978-0983167815) which is assigned throughout the curriculum as homework, however the homework is optional and is not necessary to complete the curriculum. But it does reinforce the Biblical concepts which are taught in the curriculum. Here are a few words that some have penned after going through the Go in Peace Biblical Discipleship Curriculum: "Amazing and life changing!" "Easy to understand and apply!" "Awesome resource!" "Great discipleship tool!" "Highly recommended!" "God blessed my life through it!" "Go in Peace will expose you to yourself!" "I will never be the same again-praises to the Lord!" Note from Cherie about the Go in Peace Leader's Manual Men's Edition: I must say that I was surprised to hear from so many men how this curriculum ministered to them. All I can say is: Praise the Lord! As the original flowery cover portrays I never intended to target men as my readers. But obviously God had greater plans! Since my original intent was never to write to men, the pages within this book remains the same as the original Go in Peace Leader's Manual, only the cover has been changed. As inspiration for the cover, the Lord kept bringing a sentence to mind that He had me write in the curriculum. "Why do we choose to stand in the prison cell when the door is wide open? Accept the gift . . . go in peace." To learn more visit Cherie's website at: www.cheriefresonke.com.

The book's four sections focus on the spirit of fear, of power, of love, and of discipline. There are 6-8 chapters in each part of the curriculum. We will also establish the truth of who God has made us to be as the truth that reigns in us, thus dethroning and renouncing fear in our lives. Part 2: Be Powerful Mission: Participate in the spirit of power God has given us power and authority in Christ. Here we will learn how to participate, practically and actively, by exercising that power in our lives. Part 3: Intimately Entwined with the Trinity Mission: Embrace the Royal Title In the Trinity, we have been given intimate relationships. Through those relationships, we've been given a crown that represents a royal title. Embracing these relationships is crucial to our spiritual victory. Part 4: The Disciplined Warrior Mission: Engage in the battle We must respond to the call God has put on our lives with the authority and power with which He has graced us. Let's put our hands to the work. May God's purpose for us be lived out to the fullest!
